Personal Effects & Barrels

Laparkan from its commencement in 1982 focused exclusively in the Personal Effects ( PE ) trade, there was a need to provide West Indian diasporas in North America with a reliable channel to send supplies, gifts and various personal items back home to their families. In 1983, Laparkan opened its doors in Toronto and was in instant success. Today Laparkan has locations conveniently established in Toronto, New York, New Jersey, Florida, Maryland, Georgia serving the various Caribbean ethnic communities in North America. What began as simple personal effects shipping enterprise has grown over the years into a dynamic, multinational and multi-service operation, Laparkan is recognized as a dominant player in the personal effects segment with market leadership to the destinations it serves.

Laparkan, the leader in consolidated and expedited shipping service to the Caribbean offers shipping of LCL, FCL, personal effects and shipping barrels to all its destinations in the Caribbean, the only market leader with direct own offices in Guyana, Trinidad and Tobago, Antigua, Barbados, Suriname, Dominican Republic, Jamaica and Panama including coverage in the Dutch and French speaking markets.
